The Mist and the Moor

What is it I see thru the mist?
Anything it could be on this moor
Is it a beauty seen in lore
A beauty waiting to be kissed.

Some say she was lost.
Lost, or was she hiding
to erase those surrounding wanting our warmth not our frost

Mist can I melt thee
So her face I may find
and across the moor we'll wind
Her, the mist and me

JR

Supposedly, today's advanced agriculture, industry, and technology, have free'd man to pursue a greater range of life's oppurtunities. This means that each of us is in a much better position to develop and realize our own particular talents.

It also means that more so than ever before, we are each asking, "Just what can I do with my life?" Each of us is challenged from within, to become all that we can be.

For some of us this challenge is too frightenin it involves too much risk- there is too much a chance for failure. We will go through life gasping, "If only I could have..."

Others of us will rush to the front lines, ready to indulge in all and everything, that life has to offer. We will become nervous, frustrated, and die discontented that we should never experience life to its fullest.

And hopefully, there are those among us who do grasp what life has to offer, while realizing themselves for what they are. Each, one person who is gloriously small in the total scheme of creation. They do find within their being, a harmony- the compromise developed between self potential and manifest oppurtunity. And they shall sleep well at night.

John Wagner

The Ghostly Rider

It's now that time of year

When the ghostly rider appears.

At midnight, he is seen atop the hill,

To every spine, there is a chill.

He rides through town like a brisk wind,

And he yells to the people, that they have sinned.

As soon as he appears, he goes,

To where, nobody knows.

Sixth issue, 140 copies

Six weeks ago, I wasn't sure that we'd make it this far. Well we have, and we're proud of it. Each issue does attract more writers, and a larger readership. This week we were a little skimpy on publication material, though. So if you do have something for our next issue- be it a play, short story, humor, poetry, or whatever; by all means do deliver it to the Information Booth in Upper Marian Centre.

Of course, I really don't mind that this issue isn't as large as it could be, because my telephone book is pretty hacked that I ripped off so many of its pages. Say's I'll regret it later. What do telephone books know anyway. Wagner

A feeling, small and tiny is born
Quivering very slowly at first
Feeling ever in you like a thorn
Wanting your mind and body to thirst

Nothing can you do, but think about it
Always on your mind, following you everywhere
You awaken and the sun shines on it
Falling asleep, you and the moon will share

What could this thing be
It is something sent from above
You feel it.... I feel it.... We feel it
It is haunting, beautiful.... it is love

JR

Why do you hide
Behind that secret mask?
Afraid something
Of you we may ask?

Who am I talking about ?
You know who you are.
Why don't you come out?
You can't hide forever, "JR."

I know who you are.
I'll give you away.
You're me, "JR"
Me all the way.

Prayer for the Trials of Day

Dear Lord my Savior Thou shall not let me weep.

Let me stand tall and face the world erect and on my feet.

Don't let me crumble under the pressures of Day.

Tell me Dear Lord, I'll accept what you say.

Don't let me be tempted by a quick talking tongue.

Because many a nation have been tumbled by one.

Let me Jesus, come through it okay.

Just one, Just one, more unbearable day.

Progress

millions of pure tears
washing progress dirty hands
keeping natures plan.

Onstage

Leaves twirling dancing
while chorus of trees bowing waiting sun's spotlight.

Not I

There are tears asking if I care,
Not I
There are pains asking did I ever,
Not I
There are dreams asking if I remember,
Not I
There are words asking if I am lying
Not I
There are past of any future with I
Not I
There are thought of if I ever will again
Not I

God is like...

God is like Pepsi...
He's got a lot to give.

God is like Bayer...
He works wonders.

God is like Coca-Cola...
He's the real thing.

God is like Wonder...
He builds strong bodies many ways.

God is like Dial...
He gives 24 hour protection.

God is like Body Powder...
He keeps you fresh and confident.

God is like Sucrets...
He gives you fast temporary relief of pain.

God is like Listerine...
He kills germs on contact.

God is like Johnson and Johnson...
He is pure and gentle.

Lady bug

You were all my yesterdays, you are my today, and all my tomorrows depend on your love.

I never heard of anyone who died
because some cared too much.
And I never knew anyone who really lived when someone didn't care enough.

There's no way I can ever care too much for you.
And yet, there's no way that I can ever care enough.

What's a girl to do?

I guess the only answer is to care
all I can
And hope that someday, it's enough.
